2. For the purpose of this rule, any land which contains 10 or more sandal trees of over 12 inches girth per acre, shall be considered as having a large number of sandal trees and such land shall be reserved. Lands containing a smaller number of trees and those containing a sprinkling of green plants may be given out for cultivation.

3. Lands containing sandal trees when granted for occupation shall always be sold by auction and the upset price to be levied shall be calculated so as to include the present value of the bonus that would be payable to the occupant in respect of such trees under the orders of Government for the time being in force in this behalf.

By Order,
N. MADHAVA RAO,
Chief Secretary to Government.
